Improvements to the ECB corner

We have made some improvements to the area of EUR-Lex dedicated to the European Central Bank: the ECB corner.

First, when you run a quick search that includes the term 'ECB' or its equivalent in any of the 24 EU official languages, you will now see two buttons leading straight to the ECB corner and to the banking supervision page, just above the filter options to the left of the page.

Second, We have added a ‘summaries of EU legislation’ section to the ECB corner, accessible via the left menu.

The summaries are short, easy-to-understand explanations of the main EU legal acts in the fields of competence of the ECB. They provide information on both the content and the background of legal acts.

You can read more about the ECB corner in the 'Rediscover EUR-Lex' section of this newsletter.

Improvements to 'My saved items'

We have improved the export function of the 'My saved items' feature on EUR-Lex.

When you are signed in, you can export any items that are saved in your 'My saved items' folders.

You will receive an export of all the selected items, in the order in which they are displayed on EUR-Lex, including any that may be hidden on a second page when viewing online.
