II.1.4) Short description:

The ECB intends to select external service providers to provide services related to the implementation of the ECB Knowledge management (KM) Roadmap. Knowledge is one of the ECB's main assets. Most decisions taken at the institutional level are, at the very least, informed by the knowledge, experience and research, available inside and outside our organisation. It is therefore important for the ECB to properly manage and leverage its knowledge – especially under the current complex and rapidly evolving technological, socio-political and economic conditions. In 2020, the ECB approved a 3-year KM Roadmap. This Roadmap contains a series of activities, aimed to strengthen the capabilities of the ECB with regards to knowledge management. The range of these KM activities covers different elements, including organizational and cultural aspects, content architecture, collaboration and search and findability.
