A Death in Glasgow

EVA MACRAE

Suicide or murder? A return train ticket sparks a chilling murder investigation in this Glasgow-based police procedural. Perfect for fans of Happy Valley and Dept. Q.

When Holly Campbell's body is found on the train tracks at Glasgow Central, police quickly rule it a suicide.

She'd had a troubled past. She'd tried before.

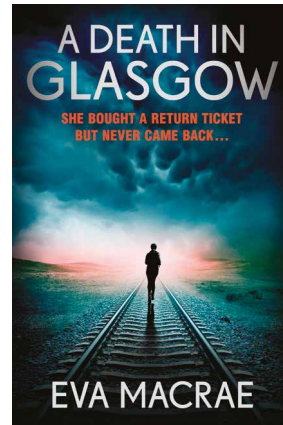

But Sergeant May Mackay can't let one detail go. If Holly never wanted to come home, why did she buy a return ticket?

Driven by her own haunting loss and a promise to Holly's grieving mother, May is determined to solve the mystery.

But the deeper she digs, the more sinister the truth becomes.

Someone is hiding a terrible secret. And they'll do whatever it takes to keep it buried.

Even if it means silencing May for good . . .

CRIME & MYSTERY

Eva Macrae was born in Glasgow, and is a former newspaper photographer turned crime author. She's covered stories including the fall of the Berlin Wall and the first Gulf War, in addition to many high-profile murder cases, which have had an influence on her popular Detective Shona Oliver police procedural series that Eva writes under her real name, Lynne McEwan. She is a graduate of the University of East Anglia's Creative Writing programme and splits her time between Lincolnshire and Scotland.

The First Time I Saw Him

LAURA DAVE

The long-awaited follow-up to the global bestselling The Last Thing He Told Me, soon to be a major series on Apple TV+ (coming 2026).

'GET OUT OF THE HOUSE. NOW.'

A text from an unknown number. It's from Owen, Hannah's husband, who left her and his daughter Bailey without warning five years ago, and hasn't been seen since.

Hannah saw him the previous evening though, and although they didn't even acknowledge each other, she knows she and Bailey are in danger. And that they need to run.

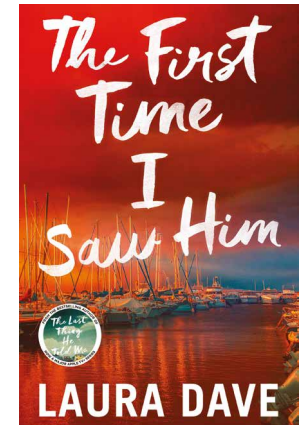

But why has Owen come back now?

As Hannah drives north up the Californian coast, along minor roads where she and Bailey won't be seen, she wrestles with this question as well as who can be hunting them.

Finally they come to an airport to board a plane to Paris, where Hannah has been told someone is waiting for them.

Paris, a special city where Hannah and Owen had honeymooned; where she hopes she and Bailey will be safe; and where her and Owen's enemies are plotting their revenge . . .

Laura Dave is the global No. 1 bestselling author of several novels, including The Last Thing He Told Me and Eight Hundred Grapes. Her novels have been translated into thirty-eight languages, and six of them, including The Night We Lost Him, have been optioned for film and television. She resides in Santa Monica, California.

THRILLER / SUSPENSE

A Killer in Paradise

TOM HINDLE

Agatha Christie meets The White Lotus in this gripping new locked-room mystery from the Sunday Times bestselling author.

The trip of their dreams is about to end in murder.

When five old friends are invited to join Abigail Blythe at the launch of her luxury hotel in the Costa Rican rainforest, they jump at the chance to spend a week in paradise.

None of them have heard from Abigail since the summer they went backpacking in Central America as students – a trip that ended in disaster for one member of the group . . .

Ten years may have passed, but old rivalries are never far from the surface. So when a body is discovered during the hotel's launch event, it soon becomes clear that one among them must be responsible.

Someone is desperate to keep an old secret hidden – whatever the cost . . .

CRIME & MYSTERY

Originally hailing from Leeds, Tom Hindle lives in Oxfordshire with his wife and daughter, an overly opinionated cat and two surprisingly cunning tortoises. He is the author of A Fatal Crossing, The Murder Game, Murder on Lake Garda and Death in the Arctic – which were all inspired by masters of the crime genre such as Agatha Christie and Anthony Horowitz.

Tom is hard at work on his next murder mystery.

Jigsaw

JONATHAN KELLERMAN

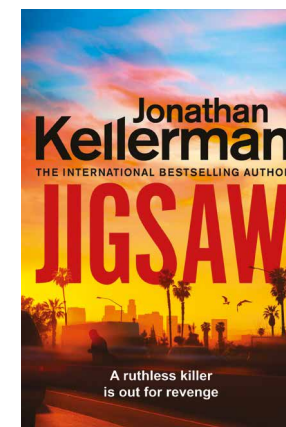

The brand new Alex Delaware novel from the No. 1 New York Times bestselling master of suspense, perfect for fans of Michael Connelly and David Baldacci.

When a young woman is found dead at her kitchen table – with DNA belonging to her ex-boyfriend at the scene – psychologist Alex Delaware and Detective Milo Sturgis assume it's an open-and-shut case.

But the guy has an airtight alibi. Could an enemy from his shady past have framed him?

Many miles away, a former LAPD officer is found brutally murdered in her garage. Her co-workers knew her as meticulously organised, but her house is full of junk and meaningless objects – except for the envelopes full of cash hidden within the chaos . . .

But as Alex and Milo dig deeper, they discover shocking links between the victims. It soon becomes clear they have a complicated – and deadly – puzzle to solve.

Greedy

CALLIE KAZUMI

A shocking and unputdownable read for fans of Lucy Rose's The Lamb and Asako Yuzuki's Butter.

Ed is in trouble with the yakuza. He's gambled away all his money and his family is at risk.

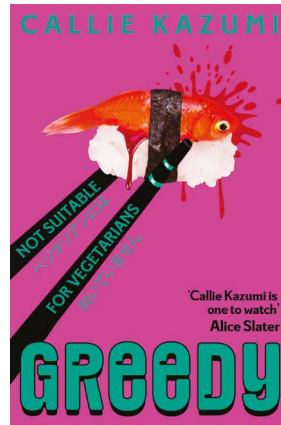

But just as he's about to lose everything, he receives an offer he can't refuse.

A reclusive billionaire is looking for a private chef. The only catch: she has some . . . unusual tastes.

As he prepares delicious dishes – fresh crab salad with a panko crumb, lamb shank dripping in red wine juice, sweet, fluffy soufflé pancakes – he realises that each meal is a test, a challenge to satisfy an insatiable appetite.

Caught up in a world more sinister than he could ever have imagined, Ed finds himself entangled in another debt.

As the stakes grow, he must make a choice. Will he stay hungry? Or will he be greedy?

Dead Heat

SABINE DURRANT

Under the searing sun, secrets simmer and betrayal lies thick in this claustrophobic, explosive new thriller from Sunday Times bestselling author Sabine Durrant.

Former journalist Matt Grimshawe's life is at a low ebb. He's been 'let go' by the paper where he's worked for years, and his relationship with his long-term girlfriend has come unstuck.

So when an invitation arrives from his two closest friends, Celia and Adam Murphy, to join them at their house in Greece, he jumps at it.

It may be harsh and unwelcoming on the Mani Peninsula but Matt is determined to stay there for the whole summer and to write his much put-off screenplay.

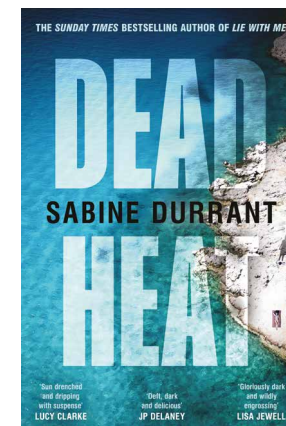

But then the Murphys plus children arrive, and a wealthy newcomer to the area starts throwing loud and lavish parties in his big house across the bay.

As the nights become hotter and the parties wilder, everyone's motivations darken. Envy rises, resentments grow – until a terrible accident stops the summer in its tracks.

At least, it looks like an accident . . .

Dead Heat is Sabine Durrant's seventh work of psychological suspense. Its setting, part of the Greek Peloponnese, has obsessed her since she read Patrick Leigh Fermor's travel book Mani. Her previous thrillers include Lie with Me, which was a Sunday Times Top Ten bestseller, and Sun Damage, which is currently in production with Bad Wolf and Disney.

Before becoming a full-time novelist, Sabine Durrant worked in editorial at the Independent, the Sunday Times and the Guardian. Sabine lives in south London with her husband, three adult children, one dog and two cats.

A Deadly Episode

ANTHONY HOROWITZ

From the global bestselling author of Moonflower Murders and Close to Death comes an unputdownable new mystery in the Hawthorne and Horowitz series.

The good news is that The Word is Murder, the first book in the Hawthorne series, is being turned into a major feature film.

The bad news is that the director is pretentious, the screenwriter thinks she's Salman Rushdie, the stars hate each other, and the producer has run out of money.

And things are about to get much worse.

In the third week of the shoot (in Hastings), the actor playing Hawthorne is murdered. It happens the day after the real Hawthorne and his hopeless assistant have visited the set. And now Hawthorne has no choice. He has to investigate his own murder.

Is it possible that Hawthorne made the biggest mistake of his career and arrested the wrong man? And is it now time for him to pay the price?

The Unicorn Hunters

KATHERINE ARDEN

The sweeping new novel from the New York Times bestselling author of The Bear and the Nightingale and The Warm Hands of Ghosts.

Anne of Brittany was a child when her land was invaded and her royal father driven to his death.

Now Brittany is occupied by her enemies, her treasury empty, and only one thing is lacking to complete her realm's subjugation: she is required, on pain of the sword, to marry the King of France.

But Anne cannot. She has promised her father that Brittany would never be conquered.

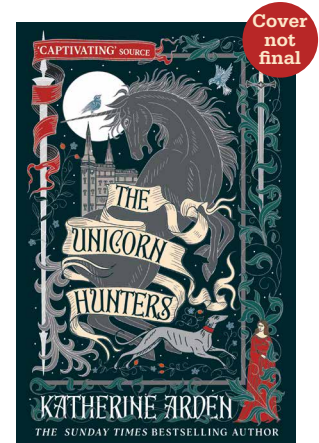

Defiantly, she betroths herself in secret to France's greatest enemy.

Under the guise of a hunting party, Anne takes her court deep into a forest, a strange place dogged with rumours of ancient enchantments; a place where diviners cannot see. She tells the French that she had gone there to hunt unicorns.

It's a ruse, a lie, a feint.

But when, against all expectations, a unicorn does appear and a wounded stranger stumbles from the trees and falls at her feet, Anne is plunged into a world of enchantment where a doomed sovereign might find the power to change the destiny of her nation – or be lost in the mist for ever.

Born in Austin, Texas, Katherine Arden has a passion for wandering. She studied French and Russian literature at Middlebury College, with time spent in France and Russia. After graduating, she moved to Maui, Hawaii, where she wrote her debut novel, The Bear and the Nightingale. She currently lives in Vermont.

All Grown Up

DAISY BUCHANAN

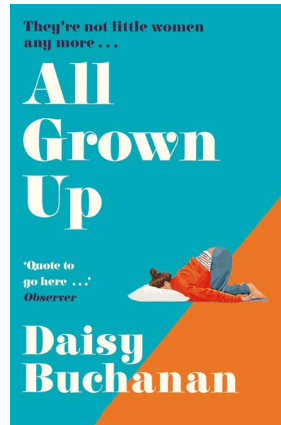

A brilliantly heartfelt and funny novel of family life in all its chaotic, messy glory, inspired by Little Women. By award-winning journalist, author and broadcaster Daisy Buchanan.

After thirty years of messy mothering, Louisa's daughters can finally look after themselves. Or so she thought...

Because suddenly, they're back – apparently for good. Meg's second-guessing her marriage. Jo's career hangs in the balance. Amy has inexplicably quit university. None of them empty the dishwasher.

Louisa knows it's time for some life lessons. She adores her girls, but if she's ever going to get her (sex) life back, they'll have to grow up – and go.

But maybe they're not the only ones with lessons to learn... And Louisa might just discover that her daughters have something to teach her about being an adult too.

Everything You're Too Embarrassed to Ask Your Doctor (But Really Should)

DR KARAN RAJAN

The new taboo-busting medical guide from the No. 1 bestselling author and social media phenomenon, Dr Karan Rajan.

Whether it's your mental health, an unfortunate rash or a weird mole where the sun doesn't shine, there are certain subjects that are simply off-limits in polite company.

The fact is though, everyone has weird thoughts from time to time, a rash is often just a rash, and a mole is normally nothing to worry about. But occasionally these bodily malfunctions can indicate something more alarming, so we shouldn't delay talking about them with a medical professional just so we don't have to have an awkward conversation.

In This is Vital Information, Dr Karan dives into the weird and wonderful world of medical taboos and empowers readers with the information they need to live longer and happier lives. Along the way, he explains why we all need to start talking openly with our friends, family and – most importantly – our doctors.

Now, open up and say 'ah' . . .

Dr Karan Rajan is a medical doctor and one of the biggest health and science creators on social media. Bimbo

ASHLEY JAMES

A rousing, empathetic feminist manifesto from broadcaster and influencer Ashley James.

Bossy. Frigid. Spinster. Sl*t. Mumsy. Milf. Bimbo. The English language has a seemingly infinite number of judgemental and hypocritical words to describe women and their life choices. We can't win, no matter what we do.

From the sofa of ITV's This Morning and online, Ashley James is a fierce advocate for women. In Bimbo, she unpacks the labels that box women in, and the systems that keep them there. From 'bossy' little girls, 'tarty' teens, 'hysterical' mothers and 'left-on-the-shelf' single women, Ashley dissects the systems that try to confine us and asks: what if we broke free? Told through raw personal stories, humour and with a fierce feminist lens, this is a battle cry for every woman who's ever felt too much – or not enough. This is a call for women to stop shrinking, stop competing, and start rising – together.

This is a book to be shared, discussed and cherished, and a beacon of hope for a better future.

Ashley James is a broadcaster and campaigner. She is a vocal advocate for equality and women's rights and is currently a political and social affairs correspondent for ITV's This Morning. She is a proud mother to two young children, Alfie and Ada. Bimbo is her first book.

Everything You Want Is on the Other Side of Hard

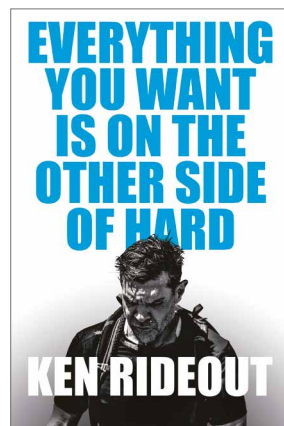

KEN RIDEOUT

An inspirational memoir and self-development book, from the world's fastest marathon runner over fifty, who overcame poverty and addiction on his path to greatness.

Half-a-century into life, Ken Rideout refuses to lose. Dubbed by the New York Times and Wall Street Journal as the best runner in the world over fifty, Ken enters every race ready to win gold or die trying. Luckily for Ken, he's fast, and while most runners slow down with age, Ken's only getting better. Picking up running at thirty-five after overcoming an opioid addiction, Ken continues to win, but while many can run fast and many have overcome addictions, few possess the motivational combination of voice, drive and story of Ken Rideout.

Everything You Want Is on the Other Side of Hard will follow Ken's journey from poverty to prison guard to popping pills to the podium. Ken's story is about digging yourself out of a hopeless situation and becoming the very best you can be. It uses stories of incredible physical metamorphosis to help readers confront those obstacles that previously seemed insurmountable.

Ken Rideout, a former prison guard and opiate addict, is acclaimed by the Wall Street Journal and New York Times as the best runner over fifty. Sober for thirteen years, Ken has won races from 5K to ultra-marathons. In October 2023, he won the Masters' Marathon World Championships in Chicago with a time of 2:29:08 at fifty-two years old. In June 2023, Ken won The Gobi March, a 155-mile ultra-marathon across the Gobi Desert, defeating 125 racers by over 90 minutes.

How to Thrive in Your Later Years
& Find Confidence, Purpose & Joy

BRIAN MOORE

Essential advice to plan and live better in your retirement and later years – from the former England rugby player turned psychotherapist.

Many of us can be apprehensive to start planning for our 'second half' in life. And then once it begins, what should become some of our very best years, a time of hard-earned relaxation and freedom, focusing on what we cherish the most, can instead become a period of worry and stress. For some, lacking the structure of their old routine, it is easy to struggle with a lack of purpose and even loneliness. But it needn't be. And help is at hand.

In The Second Half, Brian Moore, the former England rugby player turned psychotherapist, draws on how he learned to thrive after the end of his own sporting career – athletes 'retire' from their principal careers earlier than most people – as well as the transformational stories of the clients he has treated to get the most out of this period of their lives.

Brian Moore is an award-winning author, broadcaster and psychotherapist, who runs his own practice helping individuals navigate retirement. He is a former England and British and Ireland Lions rugby union international. Brian Moore won sixty-four caps for the England rugby team between 1987 and 1995. He played in three Rugby World Cups and won the Grand Slam in 1991, 1992 and 1995. He went on two British Lions tours. Originally a qualified solicitor, he has co-commentated for international rugby matches alongside Eddie Butler on BBC TV, writes for the Daily Telegraph, and broadcasts on talkSPORT radio.

The Wilder Way

EVA ZU BECK

An inspiring story of one woman adventuring the world solo, from top YouTuber and travel filmmaker Eva zu Beck.

Eva has it all: a high-flying job in the city, a loving husband, a lifestyle that many would aspire to. Yet she can't quite shift the feeling that she is living someone else's dream, not hers. Escaping these anxieties by partying hard works for a little while. But after hitting rock bottom, she buys a one-way ticket to Nepal and leaves her old life behind in search of adventure.

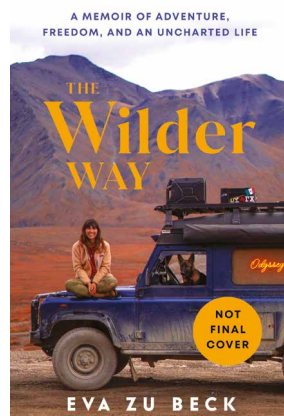

Over the next few years, Eva travels solo to some of the world's most far-flung places, riding horseback in Mongolia, travelling to a desert island in Yemen and driving cross-country through the US. But the shift from a rooted life to a transient one is far from straightforward, as Eva grapples with a nagging tension between her wanderlust and a longing for somewhere to call home.

This book is the world-expanding memoir of Eva's wild adventures – and inspiring example of how to step outside of expectations and live on your own terms.

Eva zu Beck is a leading female adventure YouTuber, inspiring over four million fans to take on new challenges and pursue the road less travelled. Known for her bold adventures, from running ultra-marathons in remote mountains to solo journeys across the Middle East, Eva has become one of the most recognisable travel creators today.

Eva has presented programmes for global platforms such as the BBC and most recently, she created, directed and hosted Superskilled for National Geographic, exploring human potential by meeting people with extraordinary skills in some of the world's most remote locations.

The Wilder Way is her first book.

TRAVEL WRITING

Not For Disclosure

UFOS: The World's Best Kept Secret

JONATHAN CAPLAN

The most serious and sourced book ever published about UAPs (Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena), previously known as UFOs (Unidentified Flying Objects).

For five decades, Jonathan Caplan KC has gathered compelling evidence on UAPs, which he believes to be part of the world's greatest cover-up. Public perception shifted dramatically in July 2023 when a former Air Force intelligence officer testified to the US Congress that the United States possesses crashed nonhuman craft. This revelation sparked global interest and increased pressure for transparency.

Travelling widely, Caplan has compiled an extensive array of confidential material from inside sources and those in official positions who have trusted him and who have been prepared to talk confidentially about the subject. This landmark book offers a detailed, up-to-date and often shocking account of the UAP phenomenon, raising important debates. It includes significant new material, such as information about JFK, secret meetings by President Truman and Secretary Forrestal, and previously unpublished documents from the 'Majestic 12' group, along with striking new photos.

Caplan has studied the phenomenon for over fifty years and is a respected voice on the subject. For many years, he served on the editorial board of a leading international UFO journal with distinguished correspondents. Caplan has observed the subject evolve from the simple concept of visiting benevolent ETs to complex issues that cover not just deep space but folklore, the paranormal, consciousness and even our concepts of reality and of life and death.

Star Wars: Outlaws

Low Red Moon

MIKE CHEN

ND-5 and Jaylen Vrax embark on their descent into the galaxy's underworld in search of answers and opportunity, in this essential prequel to Star Wars Outlaws.

Jaylen Barsha, heir to his family's immense power and wealth, had his life charted out for him neatly and meticulously by his parents. Then the Empire stripped it all away on trumped-up charges of conspiracy against his family.

A battle droid arrives at the family compound with a mission to kill every last member of the Barsha clan. Jaylen manages to fend off the attack as the sole survivor, but realises the droid, who he reprogrammes, is his only chance to stay alive. But he can no longer be Jaylen Barsha – he'll have to live now as Jaylen Vrax.

Former Separatist battle droid ND-5 knows he should be scrap metal, all things considered. He was a proficient contributor to the Separatist cause, but what is a soldier without a war? Perhaps, the droid thinks, with a partner he can be more. ND-5 just has to earn Jaylen's trust

The Fox and the Devil

KIERSTEN WHITE

An obsession with a beautiful serial killer entangles a vampire hunter's daughter in an immortal sapphic romance in this enthralling gothic fantasy from the No. 1 New York Times bestselling author of Lucy Undying.

Anneke has a complicated relationship with her father, Abraham Van Helsing – doctor, scientist and madman devoted to studying vampires – up until the night she comes home to find him murdered, with a beautiful woman looming over his body.

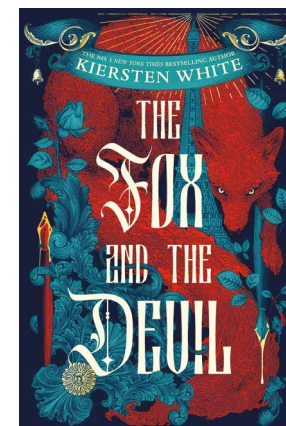

Her father isn't the only inexplicably dead body. So, obsessed with vengeance, Anneke puts together a team of detectives to catch her mysterious serial killer.

But, for reasons even she can't explain, Anneke keeps some crucial evidence to herself: infuriatingly coy letters, addressed only to her and always signed Diavola. Devil. The obsession is mutual, and all the more dangerous for it.

And the closer Anneke gets to her devil, the less sense the world makes. Because as Anneke unearths more of Diavola's tragic past, she suspects there's still a heart somewhere in that undead body.

A heart that beats for Anneke alone.

Kiersten White is the New York Times bestselling, Bram Stoker Award-winning, and critically acclaimed author of many books, including The Dark Descent of Elizabeth Frankenstein, the And I Darken trilogy, the Slayer series, the Camelot Rising trilogy, and her adult standalones, Hide and Mister Magic.

AVA REID

A visionary and atmospheric gothic fantasy about necromancy, vengeance and soul-consuming love, the first in a duology from the Sunday Times bestselling author of A Study in Drowning and Lady Macbeth.

Once there was an island where the dead walked the earth, and seven noble houses ruled by the arcane secrets of necromancy. A conqueror's blade brought them low but defiant against the new order stands the House of Teeth and its last living members.

Agnes is the true carrier of the House's legacy. And she has her orders. She must recapture the secrets of death magic and avenge her family's fallen honour. She must arrange the betrothal of her beloved heiress cousin Marozia to Liuprand, heir to the conqueror's throne, for access to the forbidden library in his grotesquely grand castle.

Revenge burns in Agnes's heart but it is Liuprand, the golden prince, who speaks to her soul. This passion is as treasonous as it is powerful, poisoning the kingdom's roots and threatening to tear the already shattered realm in two.

For Agnes's final order is the gravest: she must not fall in love.

Ava Reid is the Sunday Times and No. 1 New York Times bestselling author of A Study in Drowning, Juniper & Thorn, The Wolf and the Woodsman and Lady Macbeth. She has a degree in political science from Barnard College and lives in New Jersey.

The Geomagician

JENNIFER MANDULA

When a Victorian fossil hunter discovers a baby pterodactyl, she vows to protect him with the help of a fellow scholar – her former fiancé – in this enchanting and transporting historical fantasy. Perfect for fans of Emily Wilde's Encyclopaedia of Faeries and A Natural History of Dragons.

Mary Anning wants to be a geomagician – a paleontologist who uses fossils to wield magic. But since the Geomagical Society of London refuses to admit women, she's stuck selling her fossils instead. Until an ancient dinosaur egg hatches in her hands – she knows that this find could make her career.

But when Mary contacts the Society, they demand to take possession of her discovery. And of course, their emissary is none other than Henry Stanton, the man who once broke Mary's heart. As her conscience begins to chafe against her ambition, Mary must decide what lengths she's willing to go to finally belong.

MOOREA CORRIGAN

A romantic historical fantasy set after WWI, where a young woman must make a bargain with a faerie after inheriting a crumbling and mysterious English manor.

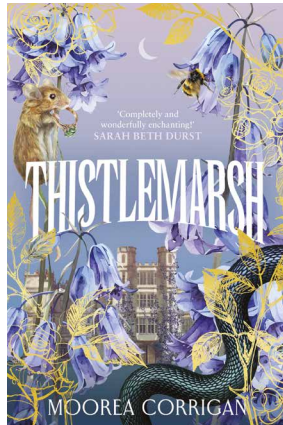

Faeries disappeared over 100 years ago, as suddenly as slipping through a doorway. It was only the very foolish, or the very determined, who held out hope for their return . . .

Mouse Dunne once dreamed of becoming a Faerie anthropologist, but in the devastating wake of World War I, it was time, she knew, to put aside childish dreams.

Then Mouse receives news that her uncle has left her Thistlemarsh Hall, a crumbling manor in the English countryside, once blessed by the Faerie King himself. But if Mouse does not rehabilitate the house in one month, she will forfeit her inheritance and any hope of caring for her brother.

Until a mysterious Faerie appears with a proposition. Mouse knows better than to trust a Faerie – especially one so insufferably handsome and arrogant – but she is out of options. Mouse must confront the ghosts of her past . . . or lose everything.

Moorea Corrigan holds a bachelor's degree with honours in English Literature from the University of Edinburgh and a Master of Publishing degree from Simon Fraser University, Vancouver. She currently works at an academic press in Boulder, Colorado. When she is not writing, you can find her singing, spending time with her husband and her menagerie of pets, or attending Jane Austen conventions in full Regency regalia.

DANI FRANCIS

In the heart-pounding sequel to the Sunday Times bestselling dystopian romance Silver Elite, Wren finds herself caught in the middle of two wars: one for the fate of her home and another for the fate of her heart.

LINES WILL BE CROSSED.

LOYALTIES WILL BE TESTED.

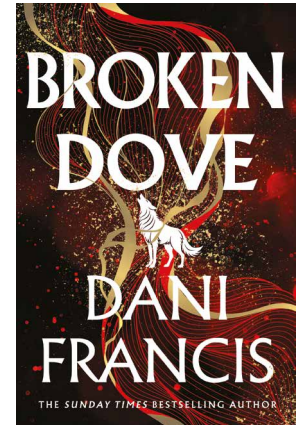

AND THE FIGHT FOR THE FUTURE OF THE CONTINENT IS ONLY JUST BEGINNING.

After blowing her cover as a double agent within Silver Elite and fleeing the Prime-controlled capital, Wren Darlington is finally safe behind allied lines.

But though she's back among her own people, trust is hard-won and hidden agendas abound on the Mod base. Beyond those walls, Wren can't help but worry that Cross is keeping secrets of his own. Then there's her shocking reunion with Grayson Blake, who seems to understand Wren on a level she never thought possible . . .

With the war between Mods and Primes growing more brutal by the day, and with her own role in the conflict becoming more essential than ever, Wren must confront some gut-wrenching questions. Who is she fighting for . . . and who is she willing to lose?

Dani Francis is an avid reader, a lover of all things breakfast, and a hopeless romantic. When not creating high-stakes fantasy worlds and complex characters, you can find Dani spending time with family or trying to figure out why the printer never works.

The Knight and Her Emperor: Volume 1

Art by WINTER; Adapted by HEYUM; Original story by G.M.

Against all odds, a talented yet overlooked female knight joins forces with an ambitious young king to unite a divided empire in this slow-burn romantasy manhwa adaptation of G. M.'s hit webnovel, now available in English print for the first time.

When war erupts in the kingdom of Ehas, a terrible man sees an opportunity and sends his least-loved daughter, Pollyanna, to fight in the family's name. The young woman, however, also sees her own opportunity: to become the most esteemed knight who has ever lived, thwarting her father's hopes that she die unnoticed and unknown.

In the enemy kingdom of Acrea, the newly crowned King Luxos plans to utilise the war to achieve his vision of a unified continent. When he captures Pollyanna, Luxos orders her execution – until she puts his knights to shame, showcasing her talent as a fighter and a strategist.

Seeing in each other a chance to make both of their dreams come true, Pollyanna and Luxos vow to work together to establish peace and build a grand empire. But what happens when the young king realises, battle after battle, that this stalwart knight has conquered his heart?

Volume 1 includes episodes 1–18 of the webcomic The Knight and Her Emperor.

Winter is the illustrator of the webcomics The Knight and Her Emperor and Pride Complex. In addition, Winter has both written and illustrated Anti-Gravity Girl and Moral Sense.

The Makeup Remover: Volume 1

LEE YEON

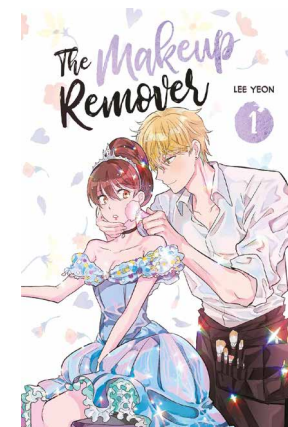

She might have the plainest face in the country . . . and that's exactly why he wants her.

Kim Yeseul has always heard that everyone glows up in college . . . so why does she feel like the least pretty college student ever?! All of her peers look effortlessly put together 24/7, but Yeseul has no idea how to apply make-up or style her hair. With neither the looks nor the confidence to stand out, Yeseul resigns herself to hiding behind her camera as she completes her photography degree.

Enter Cheon Yuseong, the most sought-after makeup artist in Korea. He needs a model for an upcoming TV competition series, and he's certain that Yeseul's plain face is the perfect canvas to showcase his skills. Yeseul isn't interested in fame or glory – she just wants to look pretty enough to catch the attention of her longtime crush, Seungwoo. But as Yeseul plunges face-first into the cutthroat world of cosmetics, she begins to question whether appearance really is everything.

Volume 1 includes episodes 1–14 of the webcomic The Makeup Remover.

The Broken Ring:

This Marriage Will Fail Anyway, Volume 2

Art by CHEONG-GWA; Adapted by CHOKAM; Original story by CHACHA KIM

Their marriage has just become official, but Inés has no intention of making it last forever.

Wedding bells are ringing, and Inés Valeztana and Cárcel Escalante are finally married. Inés is a shockingly radiant bride, and the nobles who once scorned her now see her in a different light – including Cárcel, who feels unsettled by all the attention on his dazzling new wife. But on the inside, Inés remains determined to ultimately unravel this marriage and gain the freedom she could never obtain in her previous lives.

The newlyweds begin their life together in Calztela, where Cárcel is on military duty. The quaint coastal city may seem like a perfect honeymoon destination, but it also holds haunting memories from Inés's prior life. As she works to untangle herself from the past and keep in motion her meticulous plans for the future, Inés finds that Cárcel might make things more difficult than she expected.

Under the Oak Tree:

Volume 3 (Novel)

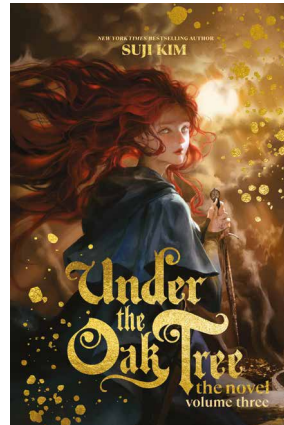

SUJI KIM

Most fairy tales end with a wedding and a happily-ever-after – but this is no fairy tale.

The day that Lady Maximilian has been dreading is here: after an arduous journey to Livadon, she must stay behind at a monastery while her husband, the renowned Sir Riftan, rides off to war with the Remdragon Knights. Consumed by worry for their loved ones, Maxi and the other noblewomen in the monastery keep themselves busy by tending to villagers in need at the local shelter.

But Maxi's patience quickly runs thin as she fears the worst. Desperate to see Riftan, she escapes the monastery and makes her way to the battlefield. Little does she know that the horrors of war and swarms of terrifying monsters are not the only dangers awaiting her. As she confronts her painful past, the tumultuous present, and an uncertain future, Maxi faces the greatest obstacles of her life – and the gravest threats to her relationship with Riftan thus far.

Darling Daffodils Farm

BRITTANÉE NICOLE

The first book in a sweet and spicy seasonal small-town series, perfect for fans of Laurie Gilmore and Lucy Score.

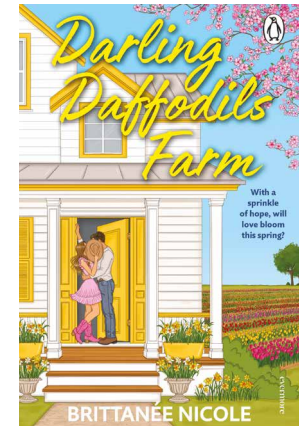

Prepare to fall in love amongst the wildflowers this spring . . .

When aspiring pastry chef, Tally Darling, returns home to her family's daffodil farm, the last thing she expects to find is a hot – half-naked – farmhand living in her childhood bedroom and running her late daddy's business.

Jesse Walker might be gorgeous but he's also infuriatingly grumpy. Walker has no time for Tally and the feeling is mutual.

That is, until Tally hears him moan over one of her signature caramel honey cupcakes. And then discovers how good it tastes when they kiss.

As dewy April days turn into warm May evenings, Walker and Tally soon realise that there is a thin line between love and hate. But will their budding connection grow into something that lasts beyond one season?

Across the Vanishing Sky

CATHERINE COWLES

Book One in a brand new suspenseful small-town series from USA Today bestselling author, Catherine Cowles.

Braedyn Winslow never expected to return to Starlight Grove. Not after her best friend vanished from the town without a trace. But determined to uncover the truth, Brae is back.

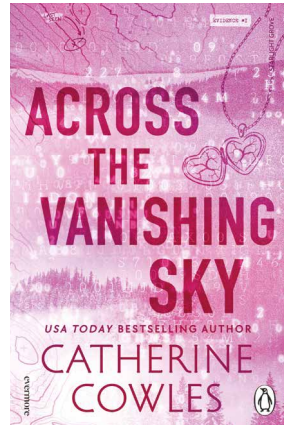

She just didn't count on the brooding, reclusive mountain man living next door.

Dex Archer is the stuff of local legend – silent, rugged and surrounded by whispers of his past. But Brae sees through his scowl to the man beneath: fiercely loyal, unexpectedly kind . . . and just dangerous enough to protect her when someone starts warning her off her search.

The closer she gets to the truth, the harder it is to stay away from Dex. And as things get more perilous, Brae realises the only person she can rely on is the one man who swore never to trust again.

Only someone isn't happy that Brae has been digging, and they'll do anything to stop her. But Dex? He'll do anything to save her, even if it means slipping back into the dark . . .

USA Today bestselling author Catherine Cowles has had her nose in a book since the time she could read and finally decided to write down some of her own stories. When she's not writing she can be found exploring her home state of Oregon, listening to true crime podcasts, or searching for her next book boyfriend.

ROMANTIC SUSPENSE

Hunt the Villain

RINA KENT

The second book in the dark romance Legacy of Gods spin-off series from the New York Times, USA Today, international and Amazon No. 1 bestselling author.

I'm hunting a monster.

The first time I met Yulian Dimitriev, it was hate at first sight. He's brass, chaotic and consumed with violence. In short, everything I disregard.

As heirs to two notorious mafia organisations, we were shoved together in an unorthodox setting. And the more I learn about Yulian, the deeper my loathing seeps.

Until I truly see the person within, and something forbidden sparks between us. But our coexistence is cut short when tragedy strikes.

Yulian and I go back to our respective, parallel worlds that shouldn't cross. But they do. And once again, I'm dragged into the orbit of a man I shouldn't want.

Two men can't be together in our world. But Yulian blurs every limit I thought existed until everything is in jeopardy.

Our hearts included.

Rina Kent is a New York Times, USA Today, international and No. 1 Amazon bestselling author of everything enemies-to-lovers romance. She's known to write unapologetic anti-heroes and villains because she often fell in love with men no one roots for but herself. Her books are sprinkled with a touch of darkness, a pinch of angst and an unhealthy dose of intensity. She spends her private days in London laughing like an evil mastermind about adding mayhem to her expanding universe. When she's not writing, Rina travels, hikes and spoils cats in a pure Cat-Lady fashion.

Happy Ending

CHLOE LIESE

Heartfelt, hot and healing. The new standalone from the author of the Bergmann Brothers series. Perfect for fans of Emily Henry.

Two best friends. One unexpected summer. A plot twist they didn't see coming . . .

Bookseller Thea never thought she'd meet her best friend through her ex-husband. But that's exactly how she ended up with Alex – a world-renowned chef and single dad who charms everyone he meets. They vowed that romance would never ruin their friendship, and two years later, they are inseparable.

So much so, that when their exes invite them both on a 'family' beach vacation – Alex's daughter and Thea's dog in tow – they reluctantly agree.

Theirs didn't start as a love story. But as blistering beach days melt into slow golden evenings, Thea and Alex find themselves confronting feelings that might just lead them to the last place they ever expected: a happy ending.

Chloe Liese writes romances reflecting her belief that everyone deserves a love story. Her stories pack a punch of heat, heart and humour, and often feature characters who are neurodivergent like herself. When not dreaming up her next book, Chloe spends her time wandering in nature, playing soccer, and is most happily at home with her family and mischievous cats.

Chasing the Fire

PAISLEY HOPE

Laurel Creek's fire chief is good at putting out fires and keeping secrets, but the town sweetheart is determined to burn through his defences in the blazing-hot finale to the Silver Pines series.

She's as wild as fire. He's ready to burn for her.

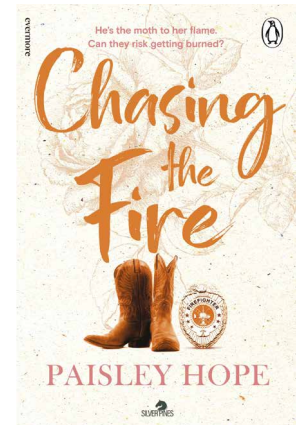

Olivia Sutton is the sweetheart of Laurel Creek. She enjoys the comforts of home, her cat and freshly baked treats. Yet beneath her good girl exterior, Olivia harbours a secret desire for something more intense – a man who can take control.

Enter Asher Reed, the town's fire chief, known for his intense eyes and mysterious past. Asher keeps everything in his life tightly controlled . . . except when it comes to Olivia, the copper-haired woman who has captured his attention in ways he can't ignore.

After a fire damages Olivia's home, Asher steps in to help her pick up the pieces. Olivia soon realises that the smoldering firefighter might be the key to her deepest desires and the future she's always dreamed of.

But when she discovers the truth about his past, will their spark ignite into a blazing romance – or will their future be extinguished by the weight of family secrets?

Paisley Hope is an avid lover of romance, a mother, a wife and a writer. Growing up in Canada, she wrote and dreamed of one day being able to create a place where readers could immerse themselves, a place they wished was real, a place they saw themselves when they envisioned it. She loves her family time, gardening, baking, yoga and a good cab sav.

Foxx

PAISLEY HOPE

The third in a motorcycle dark romance series from self-published sensation and author of the beloved Silver Pines series, Paisley Hope.

Past navy seal and current Disciples of Sin motorcycle club president Aiden Foxx trusts no one. The only people he lets in are those who live his sordid, unpredictable life with him.

But then a fiery little goddess shows up in his club, attracting the gaze of every man she passes, including one destined to make her suffer.

Aiden shouldn't care about Mia. But he also can't ignore the unexplainable tether between them. Even when he finds out she's a rival with an agenda of her own.

Because Mia is here to kill someone. And she's ready to declare war.

Tempting Venom

RINA KENT

The second in a dark hockey romance series from New York Times and USA Today bestselling author of the Legacy of Gods series.

When two ruthless enemies collide.

My name is Preston Armstrong, and I'm the most depraved bastard you'll ever meet. My life revolves around my needs, desires and whims. Everyone else are mere accessories to my privileged existence.

That is, until I crash into the force of nature that is Marcus Osborn. Captain of our rival hockey team and the perpetual thorn in my side. He's my own brand of heartless and just as degenerate. But only one of us can rule the rink.

I set out to crush him, his career, and his infuriatingly gorgeous face. But I didn't anticipate how fiercely he'd strike back. In this battle of two unhinged souls, our bodies become collateral damage. I just never expected our stone-cold hearts to get involved.

As our dark pasts resurface, we'll either annihilate each other or ignite a fire that could consume us both.

Rina Kent is a New York Times, USA Today, international and No. 1 Amazon bestselling author of everything enemies-to-lovers romance. She's known to write unapologetic anti-heroes and villains because she often fell in love with men no one roots for but herself. Her books are sprinkled with a touch of darkness, a pinch of angst and an unhealthy dose of intensity. She spends her private days in London laughing like an evil mastermind about adding mayhem to her expanding universe. When she's not writing, Rina travels, hikes and spoils cats in a pure Cat-Lady fashion.

Romantic Hero

KIRSTY GREENWOOD

A hilarious and heartwarming high-concept love story, from the author of The Love of My Afterlife.

Gertie Bickerstaff writes happily-ever-afters for a living . . . or she did, until her own love life fell apart. Now her ex is thriving, her deadline is looming, and she can't write a single word.

The last thing Gertie needs is more drama – like waking up to find a confused and rugged cowboy on her sofa. And not just any cowboy, but River Oakley, the villain from her unfinished novel. Somehow very real . . . and very shirtless.

River wants to go home. Gertie wants her life back. So they strike a deal: he'll use his cunning ways to help her win back her ex, she'll finish the novel, and surely, he'll return to whatever world he rode in from.

But as River Oakley proves to be so much more than just the bad guy, Gertie has to choose: the ending she thought she wanted . . . or the plot twist she never saw coming.

A Daughter's Love

NANCY REVELL

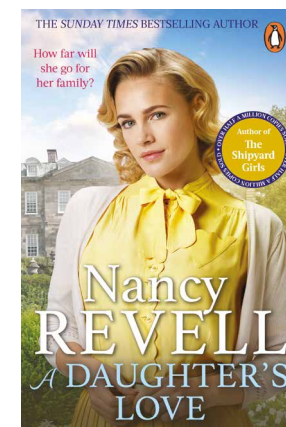

From the Sunday Times bestselling author Nancy Revell comes the third novel in the compelling Cuthford Manor series.

When Lucy's estranged mother dies unexpectedly, her grief is overwhelming. Lucy was disowned when she married penniless horse-trainer Danny for love, leaving her blue-blooded family's fortune in tatters. But Lucy always dreamed that one day, they'd reconcile.

So when her widowed father Edward begs her and Danny's forgiveness for his part in their argument, she's overjoyed. Newly pregnant, she's determined to give her baby the family she longed for.

Danny, however, isn't convinced: Edward's mended ways feel too good to be true. But Lucy's pregnancy is difficult, and she can't hear his worries. Until the worst happens, and their fragile family is tested to its very limit . . .

Will love be enough to get them through?

Holy Island

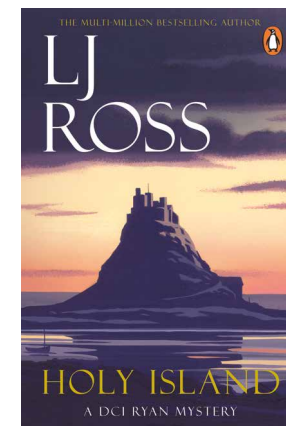

LJ ROSS

The first title in LJ Ross's globally bestselling DCI Ryan series, and a perfect entry point for both new and long-time fans.

Detective Chief Inspector Ryan retreats to Holy Island seeking sanctuary when he is forced to take sabbatical leave from his duties as a homicide detective. A few days before Christmas, his peace is shattered and he is thrust back into the murky world of murder when a young woman is found dead amongst the ancient ruins of the nearby Priory.

When former local girl Dr Anna Taylor arrives back on the island as a police consultant, old memories swim to the surface making her confront her difficult past. She and Ryan struggle to work together to hunt a killer who hides in plain sight, while pagan ritual and small-town politics muddy the waters of their investigation.

Murder and mystery are peppered with a sprinkling of romance and humour in this fast-paced crime whodunnit set on the spectacular Northumbrian island of Lindisfarne, cut off from the English mainland by a tidal causeway.

The Cove

LJ ROSS

The gripping first novel in the Summer Suspense series, set amidst the spectacular Cornish landscape.

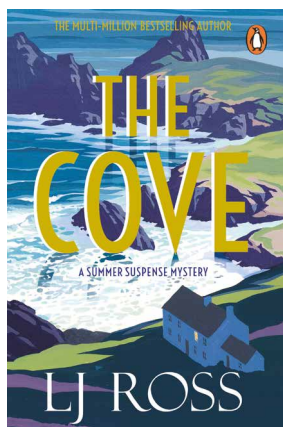

Gabrielle Adams has it all – brains, beauty, a handsome fiancé, and a dream job in publishing. Until, one day, everything changes.

‘The Tube Killer’ takes his victims when they least expect it: standing on the edge of a busy London Underground platform, as they wait for a train to arrive through the murky underground tunnels of London.

Gabrielle soon learns that being a survivor is harder than being a victim, and she struggles to return to her old life. Desperate to break free from the endless nightmares, she snatches up an opportunity to run a tiny bookshop in a picturesque cove in rural Cornwall.

She thinks she's found the perfect escape, but has she swapped one nightmare for another?

Suspense and mystery are peppered with romance and humour in this fast-paced thriller set amidst the spectacular Cornish landscape.

The Invisible Woman

JAMES PATTERSON

From bestselling author James Patterson comes a gripping standalone thriller where an FBI agent must pose as a nanny in a wealthy NYC home to infiltrate a dangerous drug cartel. Perfect for fans of The Housemaid and the Women's Murder Club series.

Ex-FBI agent Elinor has all but faded into obscurity. But when a call from her former boss offers a shot at redemption, she can't resist.

Her mission: infiltrate the opulent world of a New York art dealer suspected of money laundering – disguised as a nanny.

Surveillance is second nature. Babysitting is not.

But as the risks increase and dark secrets are unveiled, she develops an unexpected bond with the young charges she's hired to protect.

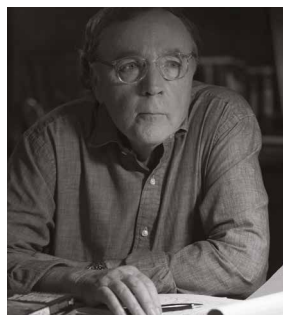

Can she betray the trust of those who have come to depend on her to get the job done?

James Patterson is one of the best-known and biggest-selling writers of all time. Among his creations are some of the world's most popular series including Alex Cross, the Women's Murder Club, Michael Bennett and the Private novels. He has written many other No. 1 bestsellers including collaborations with President Bill Clinton and Dolly Parton, standalone thrillers and non-fiction. James has donated millions in grants to independent bookshops and has been the most borrowed adult author in UK libraries for the past fourteen years in a row. He lives in Florida with his family.

Cross and Sampson

JAMES PATTERSON

A thrilling spin-off of the bestselling Alex Cross series, featuring DC Metro Police Detective John Sampson.

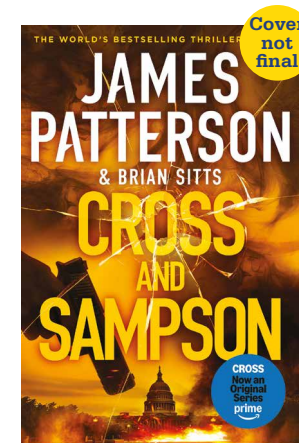

Detectives Alex Cross and John Sampson must divide and conquer when they're sent to investigate two serious crimes.

In Washington, DC, John Sampson stands in a crater in the middle of a street and calls in the bomb squad for a suspected terrorist attack.

In North Carolina, Alex Cross searches the apartment of a missing psychology grad student – his own son Damon. Has following in his famous father's footsteps made Damon a target?

From FBI headquarters to police stations, airplanes to murder scenes, the detectives track crimes committed hundreds of miles apart.

It will take more than distance to weaken their unstoppable partnership.

Judge Stone

JAMES PATTERSON
AND VIOLA DAVIS

From bestselling thriller writer James Patterson and Academy Award winner Viola Davis comes To Kill A Mockingbird for the twenty-first century – a heart-pounding courtroom drama where establishment, power and conscience collide.

Viola Davis and James Patterson have written an incredible courtroom drama and created the most unforgettable character in years.

All rise . . . for Judge Stone.

The most respected citizen in Union Springs, Alabama (population 3,314), is Judge Mary Stone. She holds two responsibilities sacred: running her family farm and presiding over her courtroom – where she draws the most controversial case in the history of the South.

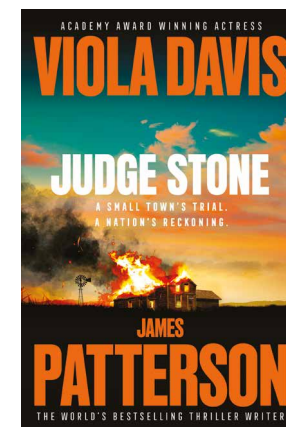

The defendant, Dr Bria Gaines, faces a maximum sentence of ninety-nine years to life. The crime: performing an abortion on a thirteen-year-old rape victim.

Criminally, it's open-and-shut.

Ethically, there is no middle ground.

Essentially, it's a choice between life and death.

No judge can satisfy everyone. It would be dangerous to try. But Judge Stone is willing to fight to bring justice to the people and place she loves.
