2. Preparations for the confirmation hearings of the Commissioners-designate

*In annex: All Written Questions transmitted to Commission

Schedule of confirmation hearings and evaluation meetings*

AD: FA

Decisions:

The Coordinators:

- Heard the Chair inform them about the process for the confirmation hearings of the Commissioners-designate;
- Held an exchange of views on their priorities for oral questions, which the Chair will take into account when making her draft proposal for oral questions;
- Agreed with the following procedure for adopting the oral questions for confirmation hearings to which CULT is invited:
 - Based on the Coordinators' input and the assessment of the written replies sent by the Commission on 22 October, the Chair will draft 3 oral questions (i.e. one question for each of the confirmation hearings to which CULT is invited and within the remit of the CULT Committee);

- Preferably on 23 October, the Chair will send her proposal to the Coordinators requesting comments and suggestions for any changes within a short deadline (probably 1 day maximum);
- Chair to send a revised set of oral questions - based on comments and suggestions - to Coordinators for endorsement within a short deadline (again probably 1 day maximum);
- Ideally, Coordinators should endorse the final oral questions by 25 October;
- During the confirmation hearings the replies provided by Commissioners-designates to the CULT written and oral questions will be used as the basis for the CULT contribution to the evaluation process of the lead Committees.
- heard the Chair raising the issue of the title of the portfolio of Ms Mînzatu, which, for the moment, does not include ‘education’, explaining that the EMPL Committee sent a written question in this regard and plans to address a letter to the EP President, suggesting a change of the portfolio title to “Executive Vice-President for quality jobs, social rights, skills and education”;
